The general army staff bill and the bill providing for a new department of agriculture building were passed. In the house the general debate on the post office appropriation bill was continued by an interesting discussion of the tariff question. The time in the senate on the 5th was taken up in a debate on polygamy, growing out of discussion of the statehood measure, the influence of the Mormon church over politics occupying a large share of the discussion. In the house the senate bill to expedite anti-trust prosecutions was passed, as was the post office appropriation bill. The conference report on the diplomatic and consular appropriation bill was adopted and the army general staff bill was sent to conference. The time in the senate on the 6th was largely devoted to the discussion of the isthmian canal, Senator Morgan predicting that if the United States continued its policy with reference to the construction of an isthmian canal war with Colombia was inevitable. In the house debate on the anti-trust bill closed. The naval appropriation bill was reported. It carries a total of $73,448,420 and provides for large increase in officers and men.

The allies are now said to plan to ask President Roosevelt to arbitrate the question of preferential treatment regarding Venezuelan claims, and, should he decline, to take the matter to The Hague tribunal. At the coal investigation at Topeka it developed that the average Kansas miner earns only $350 a year. The Montana senate defeated a woman suffrage bill. John Stark, a saloonkeeper, killed his wife and himself at Rosedale, Ind. Domestic trouble was the cause. There were 264 business failures in the United States during the week ended on the 6th, against 243 the same week in 1902. The Delaware senatorial deadlock over J. Hardie Henderson, a well-known baseball player, was instantly killed by the cars in Philadelphia. Nearly all the large rivers in Indiana are on the rampage as the result of heavy rains and thaws. It was reported that several United States senators had received telegrams from John D. Rockefeller that anti-trust legislation must stop. Other senators denied the report. The bituminous miners at the Indianapolis conference accepted a new scale increasing wages 12½ per cent. on an average and a strike was averted and peace assured for a year. During the civil war he was assistant surgeon in the navy. Henry G. Hayes, for years prominent as a correspondent and legislative reporter, died at his home in Washington, aged 74 years.

FOREIGN.

Mary Ann Mills, the oldest woman in Canada, died in Woodham in her 115th year. A report from Fez confirms the rumor that the pretender to the Moroccan throne has been captured. The organization of a large army to proceed against foreigners in northern China is reported. Thirty persons were drowned off Duraborg reef by the wreck of the French bark Van Stabel. A European war is threatened by the Russo-Austrian concentration of troops on the Roumanian frontier. LATER.

Hubbard T. Smith, United States vice consul general at Cairo, who had been in a hospital at Genoa for some time, is dead. The Tennessee senate has adopted a resolution instructing the Tennessee delegation to the next democratic national convention to urge the nomination of a southern man on the presidential ticket. Dissatisfied because of the alleged employment of non-union laborers in driving bolts, 130 union carpenters engaged in the construction of the manufacturers' building at the Louisiana Purchase exposition struck. A dispatch from Knoxville, Frank-ko county, Miss., states that eight men have been bound over to the criminal court in bonds of $2,000 each to answer charges of intimidating negroes for the purpose of causing them to leave the county. The British bark Crown of Germany, from San Francisco, has arrived at Queenstown and landed 30 of the crew of the Belgian steamer Maskekyne, from New Orleans for Antwerp. The steamer was abandoned in a sinking condition on January 31. The central committee for the relief of the famine sufferers in northern Sweden has received from America about $17,500. Besides this amount considerable sums have been sent to individuals by American sympathizers, for distribution to the needy. Fire caused by the explosion of an automobile burner in the Pennsylvania railroad shops, at Pitea, Pa., destroyed the passenger car repair section and cabinet shop, entailing a loss of $15,000 to the company. Over 100 men were at work in these departments and they barely escaped with their lives, many losing their tools and the clothing which they wear to work. The estate of Norman Kittson, valued at over $3,000,000, has just been closed in the probate court at St. Louis, nearly 15 years after that well-known capitalist died on a train between Chicago and St. Paul. The St. Paul Trust Co. was in charge and the estate was divided equally among the 11 children. On the 10th the house adopted the conference report on the department of commerce bill. The remainder of the day was devoted to the sundry bill appropriation bill. The feature of the senate proceedings was Mr. Morgan's speech on the statehood bill, which he said was being used to blockade anti-trust legislation.

The historic Hill of Tara in Ireland has been sold at auction for $18,500. The purchaser is a woman, whose name is withheld from the public. Chancellor von Buelow expresses satisfaction at the condition of German foreign affairs and says the future policy will be along conservative lines. Secretary of War Root, in order to promote the health of the men of the national militia, proposes instruction of officers in school in Washington. BUCKEYE TOPICS.

A Glance at Some Recent Doings in Ohio.

A Convention of Veterans. Springfield, Feb. 11.—Thirty-four states were represented at the meeting of the National Veterans' union yesterday. Resolutions were adopted declaring in favor of the original principles of the organization, allowing only veterans of six months' service and one battle to become members. Sons of veterans are to be admitted as honorary members. Officers were elected as follows: Gen. F. B. Hutchinson, Rochester, N. Y., commander-in-chief; W. H. Keppers, Portsmouth, N. H., deputy commander-in-chief; H. A. Weaver, Topeka, Kan., chaplain-in-chief; J. W. Berry, Springfield, O., sergeant-in-chief. An executive committee was appointed, consisting of one member from each of the states represented.

A Very Disastrous Failure. Chardon, Feb. 6.—The work of settling up the affairs of the Boughton, Ford & Co. bank, which assigned recently, is progressing slowly. It develops that all the public funds of Burton—township, village and school—are tied up in the bank, and the funds of seven other townships were on deposit there. Many old people had all their money there. Some of them have only their homes left. A large Amish colony near Burton also had funds in the bank. Receiver Williams has notified all persons indebted to the bank that they must make immediate payment. The enforcement of this order will cause over 100 sheriff's sales.

Adopted a New Plan of Admission. Columbus, Feb. 7.—The faculty of Ohio State university has adopted a novel plan of admission, calculated to raise the standard of entrance requirements. The high schools of the state have been divided into two classes. Students from those schools having a four-year course of sufficiently high standard will be admitted to the university upon presentation of a certificate of graduation. From schools of a lower standard the prospective student will be required to pass examinations in all studies not satisfactorily covered. The idea is to lessen the number of those "flunking out" from insufficient preparation.

A Ruction Is Promised. Columbus, Feb. 11.—There will be a row on when the democratic state central committee meets here Thursday. An attempt will be made to oust Chairman Garber and his entire executive committee. The plan is to knock out Tom Johnson as the leader of the democratic party in Ohio. It will be charged against Garber that he has been sending out letters in the interest of Mayor Johnson and also that he closed up headquarters when instructed to keep them open. It is further charged that the committee has worked for the success of the Johnson faction, insulting the McLean and Zimmerman factions.

Gov. Nash's Ailments. Columbus, Feb. 11.—Gov. Nash, by direction of his physician, is spending most of his time in bed. The governor's heart is in such condition that he will hardly be permitted in the future to apply himself very closely to the duties of the executive office. It is generally conceded that hard work and worry over his accomplishment of the two chief ambitions of his administration—a new tax system for the support of the state government and a new municipal code—have left him in such a weak physical condition as to greatly aggravate his heart trouble.

Taylor Has Not Resigned. Columbus, Feb. 10.—Gen. Gyger denies the printed stories that Col. H. M. Taylor, assistant adjutant general, has resigned. It is believed that jealousies among Fourth regiment officials are responsible for the bringing up of the charges that Taylor was involved in divorce proceedings. His trip to the Pacific coast is on leave of absence, for business and health. His relations with Gyger are friendly.

The Foraker Club's Banquet. Youngstown, Feb. 11.—The annual banquet of the Foraker club was held here last night. Covers were laid for more than 400 guests. The principal addresses of the evening were delivered by Col. Myron T. Herrick, of Cleveland, who spoke on "The Future," and M. M. Garland, of Pittsburg, ex-president of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers, who responded to "Lincoln from the Workingman's Standpoint."

Burned to Death in Her Bed. Columbus, Feb. 11.—Mrs. Francis Dabuer, colored, said to have been more than 100 years old, was burned to death in her bed Tuesday morning. She was alone and the origin of the fire is unknown.

Will Study the New Code. Dayton, Feb. 11.—The Ohio league of Municipalities began its sixth annual convention here Tuesday with 100 delegates in attendance from as many cities of the state. The sessions, which will conclude on Thursday, will be mainly devoted to a study of the conditions arising under the newly enacted municipal act.

A Mortgage for a Million. Youngstown, Feb. 11.—The Stark Electric Co. has filed with the county recorder a mortgage for $1,000,000 in favor of the Savings and Trust Co., of Cleveland.

THE PROFESSOR'S DISCOVERY.

All His Learning Went for Naught When the Supposed Antique Was Opened.

It took the professor a lifetime to master the intricacies of the old Egyptian hieroglyphics. One day he discovered a roll of papyrus, containing in one place mysterious marks too faint to be deciphered, says the New York Sun. It took the professor a week to find out that the papyrus was in a double layer with the mysterious marks in between. It took the professor another week to separate the layers of the papyrus without tearing it. It took the professor practically no time at all to read the writing, which ran as follows: "My name is Blanche Terwilliger. I work in McGuire's factory of antiquities at Oshkosh, Mich. I am a brunette, 18 years old, and generally considered handsome. I could make a trusting wife to the right man and write this note in the hope that it will fall into the hands of such a man and so lead to further correspondence." It took the professor two hours to yield the obstructions which he felt the situation demanded. It took the professor another week to marry the girl. "Thunder, not! The professor was already married. The idea!"

An Important Discovery. Granton, Okla., Feb. 9th.—After ten years E. H. Gosney of Granton has at last found a cure for Kidney Trouble. Mr. Gosney suffered very severely with Kidney Complaint and some ten years ago made up his mind to find a cure if one was to be had. He has tried and tried and experimented with every kidney medicine he could find. Although he was always disappointed he kept on trying till at last his perseverance was rewarded and he found a complete cure.

He is a well man to-day and explains it as follows: "Everything failed to cure me and I was growing worse and worse till I tried a new remedy called Dodd's Kidney Pills and I had not taken many of them before I knew that I had at last found the right thing. I am entirely cured and I cannot say too much for Dodd's Kidney Pills."

CURE SICK HEADACHE.

Constipation Cured

Those who have used salts, castor oil, and the many home and manufactured purgatives, know that in such treatment there is no possibility of a cure from constipation. These remedies are at most physics and do absolutely no good. In fact they frequently provoke piles, fistula, female disorders and many cases of appendicitis are traceable to their use. Soon the ordinary doses of these physics fail to have any effect upon the bowels.

There never was a case of temporary or obstinate constipation that would not cure. First, Mull's Grape Tonic is unlike any other treatment for constipation. It is the greatest and most positive laxative known. But that isn't what cures it. It is the tonic properties of the grape and other fruits that strengthen the worn-out muscles of the intestinal tract. Mull's Grape Tonic builds flesh, makes strength and creates rich red blood. Mull's Grape Tonic is the most thing ever known for constipation. It is guaranteed to cure you. Large sample bottle sent free to any address on receipt of 10 cents for postage by Lightning Medicine Co., Rock Island, Ill. Send your doctor's name.
